Don't miss this opportunity to dance in Alexandria's City Hotel, starting of the holiday season with an unforgettable evening. Famous for quartering Unionist Governor Francis Pierpont and as a tourist attraction for soldiers because of its connection with George Washington, the ballroom come alive at this elegant, Victorian-era ball, featuring the waltz, Virginia Reel and more led by dance master Corky Palmer. Live music, dessert collation, and a cash bar will be available. Period attire (military or civilian) or after-five wear encouraged. A ladies changing room is available with prior request.
